English Timber Yard.

JOHN E TURNER & Co. beg to announce to the Commerce and Farmers that they have established a Yard for the Sale of fencing and building materials etc. at No. 336 Calle Pedro Mendoza, Boca del Riachuelo, where a complete assortment will always be kepton hand.

Having arranged with Mr Edward Casey to conduct the sale of ñandubay posts which come to his consignment, we are in a position to retail all measurements at wholesale prices, with the guarantee of supplying posts to the satisfaction of buyers.

Fencing wire of best Marks 'varillas' 'torniquetes, lumber in general, all classes of Pine, Tiles, Baldosas and all building materials are always in stock.

Also Sheep Wash.

The business will be conducted upon a strict cash principle and by this means we confidently expect to give good articles at lower prices than any other house in the trade.

Carlow Lay College
AND
ST. MARY'S PREPARATORY SCHOOL
Knockbeg, Queen's County.

In Carlow Lay College students are prepared for the Army, for the various professions, and for Degrees in Arts in the University of London.
Amongst Catholic Colleges, Carlow ranks next to Oshaw and Stonyhurst in the number of her students who are graduates and undergraduates of the London University. An Examiner from the University of London holds Examinations in Carlow College, to confer Degrees in Arts.
There is a special class under a competent master to prepare students for commercial life, and no exertion is spared to secure the progress of the pupils in the junior classes.
TERMS:
Pension, including all extras, 35 guineas per annum.
Pension, exclusive of extras, 30 guineas.

St. Mary's Preparatory School
In connection with Carlow Lay College, the Preparatory School of St. Mary's, for Children from eight to twelve years of age, has been re-opened.
Rector—Rev. William P Bourke.
English Master.—Mr P Harnett.
The School is strictly and purposely limited to children of such age, in order that they may be totally separated from the grown boys, and may have all the advantages of minute attention which their tender years require.
The children at St. Mary's are under the special care of the matron, and the rector takes charge of their religious instruction.
TERMS:
Pension, including all extras, 35 guineas per annum.
Pension, exclusive of extras, £30.

THE MONTEVIDEAN CRISIS.

In all the many political changes that have marked the history of the Banda Oriental, we find no precedent for its present Government crisis, since in reality it is a revolution not by the people against their rulers but by the rulers against the people; and this extraordinary political phenomenon is all the more difficult of definition as its causes are so obscure. Had Colonel Latorre to contend with strong political faction or to bear the brunt of the most systematic newspaper abuse, one could better understand the retirement 'en masse' of his administration, but, on the contrary, the Press of Montevideo is both temperate and guarded, and none of the elements of disorder, which are so obvious in the Argentine Republic, are in the least discernible in Montevideo. It needs, therefore, a higher acquaintance with Banda Oriental politics than we possess to trace the causes which have provoked the present crisis.

A revolution in the Plate cannot be termed a novelty; yet this affair in Montevideo is without precedent, since it assumes a far higher importance than a mere change of Ministry or public men; and the apology for its occurrence given in the words of Colonel Latorre himself is an accusation against the Montevidean people that strikes at the very essence of their nationality.

"I resign power with the melancholy conviction that the people of my country are ungovernable." These are the words of Colonel Latorre to the Senate on handing in his resignation—words that will echo through the Plate and strike the minds of Argentines, perhaps, even more than Montevideans.

Had the assassin's hand removed Latorre and his Ministers from office—had a revolution broken out, as in former years, and every public man been cut down in the streets—had an invading band of Banda Oriental patriots swept the camp and laid siege to Montevideo, all these would have had less significance for the people of this country than the present constitutional surrender of authority, with a charge so tremendous and a verdict that comes home to ourselves.

We have now neither time nor inclination to discuss the merits of the Latorre rule. Every one who knows anything of the contemporary history of the Plate knows but too well of the adversity which created it and the anarchy which it removed. Every well-wisher of the Banda Oriental sighed to see the Dictatorship succeeded by a Constitutional form of Government, and these wishes were accomplished. Nevertheless, in the noontide of that constitutionalism, the Chief of the State flings up office, and charges the astonished public with being unworthy of Government.

If the press of Buenos Ayres deals with this subject in a proper and independent spirit, the newspaper readers of this city will have much to learn: but it is impossible to look for such a thing. As well might we expect our colleagues to admit that the cap fits us, or that the seething political scandals which we have all witnessed of late in this republic have culminated in Montevideo and by carambola produced a Nihilism that in truth had its origin in Buenos Ayres.

The press of Montevideo has ever been guarded and reserved; calumny and pasquinade are unknown to its columns. The editors rarely meddle with politics; and as for sedition, if it does exist in the B. Oriental it must possess other channels than the Montevidean press. The extraordinary difference between Argentines and Orientales cannot be more clearly shewn than in their newspapers, which in this country are seditious down to the very printing-ink, and the parents of all our political excitement, whilst in Montevideo they are exactly the reverse. In this republic sedition and revolution exist but in the papers; in Montevideo its hold is in the people. 'Viola tout:' better after all to be pestered with fanatical revolutionary leaders every morning of our lives than to have hatched revolution such as that which has provoked the present sad state of affairs in the sister republic.

The following is Colonel Latorre's manifesto:—

Montevideo, March 15th.
To the Hon. General Assembly.

In obedience to what my conscience dictates and the duty I owe to my dignity as a citizen, I can no longer consent to remain at the head of public affairs, and I now resign to Your Honble hands the post of President of the Republic, with which I was honoured on the 1st March 1879.

God preserve Your Honours
Lorenzo Latorre.

Colonel Latorre to his Fellow-citizens and all the inhabitants of the Republic.

Having irrevocably resolved to leave office, I have just sent my resignation of the post of President of the Republic to the Honourable General Assembly, and I owe my fellow citizens and the whole country a manifestation of my gratitude for the aid rendered me during the whole time in which I acted as Chief Magistrate of the nation.

Conscience and my personal dignity alike impose on me the irrevocable resolution to withdraw from public life; and if I have in anything contributed to the stability, improvement and well-being of the country, it has been done at great sacrifices—organising what was disorganised, and reviving a public spirit that was utterly cast down, to some hope of a political and social reconstruction.

Amongst these great sacrifices, I have faced calmly the worst of all—Defamation, as it is my political creed that public men owe to their country even the sacrifice of their fair name; for, high above ingratitude and passionate party spirit is the calm verdict of the People, who ever render justice to those who deserve it, and the verdict of History, which always judges men and events with the strictest impartiality.

In retiring into private life I take with me the sad conviction that our country is ungovernable!

With this conviction firmly rooted in my mind I lack the courage to continue the hard task imposed on me by the votes of the People.

Let no one misunderstand me—I neither can nor will govern the country any longer, in any shape or form, nor for any consideration, nor on any pretext; and for this reason I have taken to-day's step. I and my friends have freed ourselves now from all political connections or obligations; I wish to be a private citizen and am firmly resolved not to accept any representative or other posts.

I, therefore, now retire into private life, where I will strictly fulfill the duty of a citizen to support the public authorities and help to maintain the order and stability of my country.

In leaving public life, my most heartfelt wishes are that my fellow citizens and all the inhabitants of the Republic will give every assistance and support to my successor: that my faithful companions in arms who form the Army of the Republic will continue to show that morality, patriotism and discipline which they have exhibited up to the present, and prove the mainstay of the authorities and public peace; in a word, that Providence, still casting its protection over our beloved country, may inspire its sons with one thought, one aspiration—to hold high its honour and work out its happiness.

LORENZO LATORRE.
Montevideo, March 13th.

THE NEW CANDIDATE.

The announcement of the nomination of Mr. Sarmiento as candidate for the Presidency, with Dr. Tejedor as Vice-President, will, in view of the present intense Presidential excitement, be accepted as, perhaps, one of the wisest combinations of the Mitre and Lyrico party. No name in the contemporary history of the Plate has a higher significance than that of Sarmiento; and prominent as it is, and has been, it has never yet been regarded as synonimous with civil war. The wave, therefore, that has tossed Mr. Sarmiento's name on the political shore obeys but the influence of the great gulf stream of public opinion, which has singled him out as the right man in the right place in a moment of such extreme national emergency.

The very severe crisis years which followed our inflated prosperity at the outset of Mr. Sarmiento's Administration associated his name with many of our financial troubles, but his public career, although open to much criticism, was always marked by a straightforward and patriotic desire to advance and aggrandise his country; and the best proof of his independence of character and honesty of purpose is that, although one of the most necessary men in the Plate, he belongs to no party, and all wish to enlist him in their ranks.

It it were for no other trait than his great decision of character, Mr. Sarmiento's name is the most eligible in the present political state of the country; and with Dr. Tejedor as Vice-President, we have the Province of Buenos Ayres and the upper Provinces at last blended in happy harmony, and the prospects of the country no longer clouded by the dread of civil war, or an opposing provincialism that threatened at one time the very integrity of the nation.

The subjoined list of electors, who bring Mr. Sarmiento to the front, is as remarkable for its respectability as it is for variety of party colour, and the reading of these names shows that patriotism is the sole motive that has inspired them in their choice:—

THE AMERICAN MAILS.

The following description of another great fire in Japan has come to hand by the American Mail. It is one of the greatest fires on record:—

San Francisco, January 15th. The steamer City of Peking brings the following news from Yokohama dated January 3rd: There was a disastrous conflagration in Tokio on Dec 26, the third in seven years—the first in 1872 and the second in 1876. Nearly fifteen thousand homes have been destroyed and 50,000 persons rendered destitute. The actual pecuniary loss is still undetermined, but it is not so great as it would be in Western countries, owing to the cheap construction of a majority of the houses. The loss of life is put down at about a hundred. The number, however, is quite uncertain, many in the rapid progress of the flames having been overtaken and destroyed, and of whom no vestige remains. In several instances numerous unrecognizable bodies and fragments thereof were found among the ruins, and many died from exposure to the cold, the night succeeding the fire being exceptionally severe.

As happened on two previous occasions of great fires, a considerable portion of the foreign district was destroyed, including several missionary establishments, one church and the office of the foreign newspaper—the Tokio Times. The U. States Legation, though in danger, escaped unharmed. Extraordinary measures of relief have been instituted by the Government authorities and private individuals.

Tokio (formerly Yedo), the capital of Japan, is in the eastern part of the main island at the head of the Bay of Yedo on the Sumidagawa. Its population in 1872 was 779,361, including a garrison of 7,140 and 400 foreigners. The city is a combination of compactly built and densely inhabited districts, with interventing gardens and groves devoted to civil and religious uses, the whole covering nearly sixty square miles, the area of the built-up portion being about twenty-eight square miles, while one-eighth of the whole is occupied by moats and canals. In the centre of the city is the citadel, surrounded by stone walls and a moat, outside of which a second wall encloses about three square miles. A third system of walls and moats incloses about five square miles, formerly occupied by the residences of the daimios, but now covered with Government buildings, colleges, schools, arsenals, barracks, foundries, steam-mills and factories Outside, in the business and more densely populated portion, are miles of brick and stone buildings in the European style of architecture, and the shops are filled with foreign wares. The streets are wide, regular and clean. The city is abundantly supplied with water brought in wooden aqueducts from Tonegawa, nine miles distant, and a part of it is lighted with gas. For police purposes it is divided into six principal and ninety six smaller districts, with stations connected by telegraph and a uniformed force of 3,500 men. At the North and South ends of the city are the cemeteries, filled with tombs and temples. There are 741 Shinto shrines, 2,179 Buddhist temples, and four Christian churches. The Imperial University has in its different faculties nearly one hundred foreign instructors. The language, normal and elementary schools are attended by more than sixty thousand pupils. There are several banks, and more than a dozen daily newspapers printed with metal type on improved presses, and native capital has established cotton, woollen and paper mills driven by steam, while sewing, knitting and other labor-saving machines are very common. Hundreds of horse vehicles and over 20,000 jin-siki-sha (man-power carriages) make the streets lively. Places of amusement abound; actors, wrestlers, story-tellers and female minstrels are numerous. Foreign dress and manner of living have been largely adopted and the place presents most of the characteristics of a modern European or American city. In 1856 and 1854 earthquakes occasioned an immense loss of life and property, and there have been many very destructive conflagrations, owing to the former combustible style of building and inefficient police. In 1861 the British and French legations were established here but were soon driven away and were not re-established till 1865. On January 1st, 1869, the port was formaly opened to foreign travel and residence. In 1871 the entire power of the empire was centred there.

A KISS IN THE DARK.

Mr and Mrs. Pettibone reside in a cosy villa at Chapham, a fashionable London suburb: they have been married several years, and enjoy perhaps a larger share of connubial felicity than married people generally partake of. Pettibone loves his wife fondly, but ever and anon a faint cloud passes over the serenity of his happiness, and he dares to venture a doubt of her constancy.

At this juncture Frank Fathom, a former suitor of Mrs. P. and an old friend of both, returns from foreign parts; he comes loaded with grotesque presents for Mrs. P. The husband, in an early conversation with Fathom, communicates to him his jealous doubts; and, remembering that Fathom was an old suitor, conceives suddenly the idea that he would prove an admirable instrument to test Mrs. P's constancy. Fathom finally consents. Mrs P. chances to overhear the proposed test, and vows to counterplot the stratagem.

At a subsequent 'tête-á-tete' with Mrs. P., Fathom, in urging his advances as arranged with the husband, to his astonishment discovers that he is met with seeming encouragement, and his mock assurances then give way to earnest avowal. Pettibone, watching from behind, observes with dismay the failure of his scheme and the apparent duplicity of both his wife and Fathom. Observing the latter advance to snatch a kiss, he crashes through the windows of the conservatory and, bordering upon madness, bursts upon the scene, in time to note the seeming agitation of both.

Exit Mrs. P.

Pettibone demands of Fathom how the test has succeeded, and Fathom, in his turn, makes ridiculous excuses, and assures him that Mrs. P. received the protestations with coldness and indifference: this deception only intensifies Pettibone's rage and jealousy, and, Fathom retiring, he resolves to charge his wife at once with her faithlessness, but observing further signs in her demeanour of the guilty part she has been playing, a new idea suddenly strikes him to apply a further test which would effectually convict the perfidious pair. Approaching his wife's writing table, in the attempt to snuff the two candles he effectually extinguishes both, then hastily dipping his handkerchief in the ink, he manages to leave a large stain across Mrs. P.'s nose. He then retires to observe the sequel.

Fathom suddenly re-enters, only to find the object of his recent singular flirtation alone and in the dark: thus, close to a beautiful woman and favoured by obscurity, Frank surrenders himself to her blandishments and rushes to embrace her; snatching an impassioned kiss he unwittingly receives from Mrs. P. the ink-mark upon his own nose. Pettibone, with lights, hurls himself furiously on the stage to discover that this time his suspicions are but too truly confirmed. The guilty pair each alike brand ed with the mark stand self-condemned: seizing his wife he forces her violently to her room. In the meantime Fathom remains behind lamenting the result of his ill starred adventure. Mary the maid enters to announce to Fathom the arrival of the post; on his turning round to greet her she bursts into laughter at the sight of his marked nose. Again in the presence of a coquettish face and bright eyes—with a weakness so rare in men—Fathom becomes a victim once more to the magic of the moment and forces a kiss, leaving behind the ink stain on her face. Then, and then only, does he realize the source of Pettibone's rage.

Fathom exits. Pettibone dashes back in search of Fathom and finds the maid marked also with the stain. Unable to bear longer this cumulative evidence of his friend's treachery he rushes off for his pistols.

In the meantime Mary introduces a veiled lady, who turns out to be Frank's wife, now arrived to greet him on his return home. Pettibone returns with his pistols, to find a lady veiled, in travelling dress, with a trunk on the table; he jumps to the conclusion that it is his wife about to elope with Fathom, and roughly attacks her; she screams for aid and the whole cast rush on the stage. Denouement, explanations, felicitations, and kissing exchanged on all sides; everybody gets marked. Finale.

Note.—The programme is so arranged that the entertainment will positively conclude at 11.15, at which hour special trains and trams will be awaiting. The Director, therefore, urgently begs that everyone will be in their seats at quarter to eight, so as not to miss the Kiss in the Dark, which will commence punctually at 8 o'clock.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

'A Kiss in the Dark.' This sweet osculatory process will be found fully described in another column, as to be performed to-morrow evening at the Opera House for the Irish Relief Fund. Those who may feel nervous about 'getting home' may set their minds at ease: the most complete arrangements have been made for trains and tramways in all directions at the conclusion of the performance at 11½ p.m. As the 'Kiss' will be the first piece performed, an early dinner and punctual arrival at the theatre at 8 o'clock ought to be the order of the night for all who intend to be present. Thanks to the kindness of the managers, there will be a special train to Lomas at ordinary fares; and special trams to Flores, Belgrano, Barracas, Plaza Once and Cinco Esquinas.

The Cincinnatus business at M. Video has almost taken the wind out of the sails of the political ship on this side of the water. When Vice President Vidal heard that Colonel Latorre intended to resign he went to him, and a scene of such liveliness ensued that the poor Vice President went home and took to his bed, but not before he had sent in his resignation in advance of the President's. While the Vice-President's was being read in the Senate, in came the Usher of the Black Rod with the President's; and then 'the fat was in the fire' in real earnest. 'Chaos has come again!' exclaimed a venerable Senator; 'if it has, then we had better go,' said half a dozen of his colleagues in a breath, and instanter there was a most unparliamentary stampede in all directions. Some of the lawmakers took refuge in the nearest foreign Consulate: others made for the port, to get on board the steamer for Buenos Ayres, without even taking time to go home for a carpet bag, and blank dismay reigned in all circles. In spite of all this alarm, however, there was no disturbance of order; the streets were utterly deserted, and the troops had them all to themselves. Stand-by O'Gorman was in the thick of the fun; his latest telegram says all over; Vidal President for 3 years.

General Sarmiento's proclamation as Presidential candidate has created tremendous excitement in the opposing electioneering camps, and all sorts of rumours as to changes of front, flank movements etc. are afloat, one of them being that General Roca has already started for Buenos Ayres, to have a conference with Governor Tejedor on the new turn of affairs. This conference would certainly beat anything this fierce electioneering campaign has yet produced in the way of a surprise: if it come about, it will show how formidable the new Richmond in the field is considered by his opponents.

The Heraldo mentions a stolen hide business in which 8 estancieros have applied to the Judge to embargo some hides in a barraca, as being their property.

The yellow fever deaths in Rio fell to 16 on the 1st inst.

The Montevideo papers report a desperate fight between a gardener and a ghost, which reminds us strongly of the memorable struggle between Micky Free's father and a ghost, over their punch, at a Galway funeral. The M. V. ghost was a robber with a white sheet round him, and the gardener succeeded in thrashing him and tying him down till aid arrived.

The Municipality of Parana has raised a loan of 8700 pats, wherewith to settle European emigrants on the 'ejido' of the town. This is the first instance on record of any Entre Rios Municipality raising a copper for a useful purpose.

The Prensa announces that General Sarmiento has been placed on the active list of the army.

Mr. Villarassa's funeral on Sunday morning was one of the largest and most influentially attended we ever witnessed. The carriages blocked up Calle Peru and the cross streets, and we noticed representative men of every gremio there. Canon O'Gorman officiated, and just as the coffin was about to be lowered into the vault, Mr. Romero came forward and made a most impassioned address, which brought tears to the eyes of many of the spectators. He spoke of the sterling worth of deceased and regretted that men of such fine type and good stamp as Mr. Villarassa were so much overlooked in the public affairs of the country; his address to the tall, sombre cypresses, and to the spirits of the departed who rest for ever in the Recoleta, had much of poetry in it; and unaccustomed as we are to such orators, it possibly had the greater effect on us, but certainly we never witnessed a more impressive scene; and the splendid tribute of respect to the memory of Mr. Villarassa was all the more acceptable to one who for years had the privilege of his acquaintance and friendship.

Sunday was a lovely day, and there was a good deal of 'outing' done by all classes. The Tiro people had their usual display at Palermo, excepting one battalion, which had invited Governor Tejedor to a 'spread' in Balvanera parish, and were far better employed in popping Champagne corks and carving ham and turkey than in popping at targets at the Wimbledon of the Plate. It is decidedly a healthy sign to see the volunteers taking to dinners instead of drill.

The report of the Italian steamer Umberto being burned at sea was a pure 'bola'. Messrs Piaggio received a telegram from St. Vincent on Sunday stating that she had passed that port on that day. All well.

Telegrams from Valparaiso announce the rival armies very near each other, and a battle expected at any moment.

The Italian demonstration on Sunday was a very imposing one, fully 3,000 men assembling on the Paseo Julio, but, as usual with the Italian residents, in the greatest order and decorum. The tone of the speeches was decidedly republican, although it was King Humbert's birth-day anniversary, but we believe the object of the gathering was to honour the memory of Mazzini.

Two months more, and we shall again be in the 'entusiasmo frenetico' season. Sr. Ferrari has engaged his opera company for the Colon Theatre, which is strong, in soprani at least. Here's the list: prime donne Durand, Potentini, Volpini and Bicci; tenors, Bulterini and Maiva: baritones, Attos and Ossi; bassos, Bendi and Pabaleni. Mesdames Volpini and Durand are above cavil, but we feel somewhat nervous about the tenors: Bulterini was here before, and left without having 'divino' put before his name, so it might have been more prudent for him not to have engaged to come back; but he is a fair singer, and has probably improved much since he was here before.

'A Tour in Europe,' by Maestro Conradi, is the latest musical novelty at the Florida Gardens. The national airs of each country are given, and the medley is a very attractive one.

The Cathedral was again crowded on Sunday last to hear the eloquent Father Jordan. As usual his sermon was most impressive and had a visible effect on the large congregation.

The 'Archivese' tiff between the Governor and the War Office has, according to a morning colleague caused 'a suspension of friendly relations between the National and Provincial Governments!! It is really no wonder that European readers of such news give up as hopeless the effort to understand the South American systems of Government.

Another outrage such as excited so much public indignation a year ago has been perpetrated on the Tucuman Railway. Near the Telfener station the rails were torn up for a quarter of a mile, and, of course, the first train that came up ran off. Considerable damage was done to engine and cars, but we hear of no loss of life.

The Capital gives some interesting figures as to the party sides which the Deputies in Congress take. There are 36 Roquistas and 36 Independents. If the new Roquista members are admitted, it will give that party a majority of 14. What about the Sarmientoists and Irigoyenists?

SPARROWS.

To the Editor of the Standard

Sir

Your Rosario correspondent has invoked me to decide upon an opinion expressed by the Revd. Mr Lett with reference to the existence of sparrows in the Argentine Republic. The Revd. gentleman asserts that there are veritable indigenous sparrows to an unlimited extent in this country, although under a different name.

There are two ways of talking about any subject in Natural History: one popular, the other scientific: if Mr Lett means that there are birds here that represent the Sparrows of Europe, and are something similar in habits and general appearance, so far he is right—such are some species of the genus Zonotrichia, family Tringillidœ, to which genus belongs the one whose local name is Chingolo: in fact, three or four species of this genus are found in different parts of the Argentine Republic: but neither the common English House Sparrow (Passer Domesticus) although of the same family Tringillidœ, nor the Hedge Sparrow (Accentor modularis, fam. Sylviidœ) is indigenous to this country. If specimens have been casually met with, they or their progenitors must have been imported, as Mr Krell has just succeeded in doing with such difficulty.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

E. W. White, F.Z.S.

To the Editor of the Standard

Dear Sir

I regret to see that Father Leahy has thought fit to 'rush into print' again, this time to the extent of a column and a half. Fortunately, for your readers, the 'galera' could not be delayed. 'No case, abuse the plaintiff's attorney,' is too stale a device to be either admired or imitated. I decline the controversy which Father Leahy would force upon me. The conditions are evidently unequal, and life is too short to be wasted in bandying 'compliments' or correcting—inaccuracies. Besides I have too much respect for the Rev. J. B. Leahy, who is, from what I hear, an estimable clergyman. It is, however, unreasonable on his part, to lose his temper because my admiration does not extend to his newspaper literary efforts; these are mistakes which, I hope, he will be the first to wish unwritten; the last is quite beneath serious notice. From a fourteen year old St Brendanite pupil, it would be blamable, from an experienced clergyman it is almost unpardonable.

'Ne sutor ultra crepidam' is, after all, a wise maxim—I leave the field clear, and the victory to Father Leahy, but let him remember Pyrrhus.

Yours

Mich. Carroll.

The gold market opened hard this morning at 30.30, and at once advanced ten cents; what with the news from Montevideo and the further purchase of one hundred thousand pats by the Government broker, the market at first showed a very rising tendency, but subsequently prices flattened, and the sudden sale of fifty thousand for to-morrow tended to still further weaken the market. The ring had closed before the news of the final settlement of the Montevidean difficulty had come up, but 2 o'clock bulletins of the Nacion were freely circulated announcing the nomination of Dr. Vidal, and the situation saved.

The vencimientos of the fortnight matured to-day and were not heavy, only amounting to 129,500. The sales for the end of April rose to 30.65, but finally settled down at 30.60.

Cedulas continue very firm. The vencimientos were only 83,000 pats, but the stock continues in strong demand at 84½.

The telegram about the Humberto I. has silenced the foolish rumour about her having taken fire. Such bolas are most improper.

The Nestorian of the Allan line has made another good homeward passage to Havre, as appears by telegram, 26 days. All the Allan steamers are good and punctual sailers.

As there was no steamer last night from Montevideo, we await the Magellan's mails this morning. It is to be hoped she brings no passengers from Rio.

It appears that they are going to have tramways in Tucuman, at least application has come down to the National Government asking for the old used rails of the Tucuman Rail way, wherewith to lay the tramway track.

Discounts in paper money are reported easier, and first class bills were done to-day and on Saturday at 8 per cent. Gold on the other hand is somewhat dearer, and now that the new fauna has commenced in the rivers the steamers each trip take up heavy remittances. The impression amongst exporters and bide brokers is that the fauna this year will prove short, owing to the high price asked by estancieros for their cattle.

It has been remarked how few Irish sheepfarmers have appeared as purchasers of sheep at the recent large sheep auctions, and on enquiring into the matter we learn that the reason is there is no land to put the flocks on, otherwise buyers for good sheep would not be wanting.

Mr J Behrens, Standard agent in Montevideo, has removed his book and music store to premises in front, and numbered 224 Calle Sarandi.

Dr Vidal, the new President of the Banda Oriental, is a physician of good practice in Montevideo and much liked, it is possible he will make a very good Governor, but he has not the energy of Col. Latorre; previous to the telegram, it was rumoured on 'Change that one of Latorre's subaltern officers would be named, which caused some alarm in the market happily, however, the affairs has passed off and has been arranged in what is considered a satisfactory manner.

All the Government offices in Montevideo are now being removed to the new Government House in the Plaza Independencia, one of the finest buildings in that city.

In the South Market this morning very high prices were again paid for wool, and lambs' wool is rising even faster than mestizo wool. The arrival of the Archimedes will free many of the barracas of bales that have been accumulating there, and Dn Nicolas Calvo, the well known Argentine writer, we understand, is passenger on board the Archimedes.

The Municipal Memoria for 1879 was given round to-day, it is a bulky volume and reminds us of the unfortunate holders of Municipal Bonds, who to this hour have not been paid their coupones.

Exchange at afternoura ruled at 5.23 Antwerp, and even some drawers refused to draw over 5.22. The London and River Plate Bank put down its rate to-day to 49½, and commercial bills passed this morning at 49½.

The sale of another cargo of salted hides was the most important business on 'Change, 1,000 hides 68 lbs. none under 60 lbs. at 52½ rls. saladero Paysandu.

Two hundred thousand francs on Antwerp passed to-day at 5.23, bills on Montevideo at ¼, and few takers.

It appears that the Government took ex change in the market to-day, it is thought about a million of francs; the private banks also are takers.

The 600,000 pats in silver shipped by River Plate Bank from Rosario was transhipped in Montevideo from Memling to Maskelyne.

To-day one of the most remarkable charters was effected in this market, and it shows how fast this country is going. Messrs Tomkinson & Dungey chartered for Mr Herzell the American brig Renshaw to load hard wood at the Ocampo colony in the Gran Chaco for Europe at reserved rates.

The Nestorian, of the Allan line, has made a smart run of 26 days to Havre. We hear that 250 sheep shipped by the Waldensian have arrived at Havre in good condition, not one being amiss or the worse of the voyage.

Good news from Paraguay, a dividend of 6 per cent on the Shares of Mercados and Almacenes Company of Asuncion was declared to-day, making with the 6 per cent previously paid 11 per cent for the year. Copy of report will be sent in a few days.

Messrs Gaston Sansinena & Son's market report was out to-day, we hold it for to morrow.

An Argentine war vessel was despatched this afternoon to Montevideo with Dr Lopez's son on board.

Hides—

1000 novillo mat., Roca, 98 rls
1000 cows do 56½
1200 Cordova hides 48
2000 Becerro 50.

The Provincial Bank discounted to-day only 3 millions, although the pedidos were heavy.

The Nat. Bank from to-morrow changes its interest rates as per notice.

The Tres Arroyos sale by Mr Ocampo is still the talk of all the market. We saw the map to-day of fifty square leagues of magnificent lands down there which belong to a leading German money broker, and Mr Alvear informs us that 6 months ago he sold several leagues of land down there at the rate of 350,000 m/c per square league; so there seems to be little doubt as to the value of lands in that rich district; a saladero at Bahia Blanca is the next move on the boards.

Ten thousand pounds sterling exchange passed on Saturday in gold and taken by Government, it is believed, at 49⅝. Exchange rules very weak, and bills that a few weeks ago were done at 5.32 are now done at 5.22.

At afterhours the following sales:—

Gold—

For cash 30,000 30.40
March 31 20,000 30.50

At 4 p.m. Market closed at 30.45 sellers and buyers at 30.40 for cash, and for end of month sellers at 30.55 and buyers at 30.50.

Our special Boca reporter gives the following latest news:—

"A German barque aground outside new canal.

"Very low tide."

The week has opened with a rather excited market, caused by the news from Montevideo: the relations between the two markets are so intimate that anything of importance down there at once shows its effect here, and although politically we have nothing to do with the change of Government in Montevideo, commercially we at once feel the pressure. Merchants and others who have keenly watched affairs in Montevideo since the accession to power of Latorre, assert that the present dilemma is caused by the utter want of respect or esteem shown by the leading men of Montevideo for Latorre or his Government. Had the merchants and capitalists of Montevideo shown a better appreciation of Latorre's services as a ruler, doubtless the present extraordinary emergency would not have arisen; but despised, ridiculed and impeached Latorre dings up authority and tells the people now to find some better man. The lesson would be all the severer if to some Captain of the guard authority was entrusted, and it is the uncertainty of affairs in the Mount that affects this market, and is likely enough to affect the whole country, since there are just as strong curren s here as on the left bank of the Plate The solution announced by telegram is not much trusted in.

The following clearances are reported in Montevideo:—

Brit. s.s. Mackelyne, by C R Horne, for Antwerp with 488 bales wool, 11 bales hair. For Rio Janeiro—865 bultos fruits, £4,610 stg. From B. Aires for Antwerp—3,000 bales wool, 1,750 salted hides, 1,000 dry hides, 10 boxes tobacco.

Brit. s.s. Memling, by C R Horne, for Antwerp 10 bags wheat. From Rosario 800 bales wool, 7,000 salted hides, 2,000 dry hides, 400 bultos minerals, 4100,000 in silver.

And the following clearances from this port:

For Antwerp the Ital. barque Giulio 2nd, 117 tons, Capt. G Dodero, by Scharffenorth, with 855 bales wool, 53 bales garras, 7,556 salted cow hides, 25,132 horns, 2,225 kilos bones.

"The Boston market—

"Business has been active and prices are firm, and for some kinds about 1c a lb higher. Sales show a large increase over the previous week and are far above the average at this time of the year. There have been some large lots moved, both in domestic and foreign. The sales of fleeces are particularly large, and prices are generally about 1c about those of a week ago. The market closes strong, with a liberal inquiry. Foreign wool has been actively sought for, and the sales make a very liberal total. Advices from foreign markets are of unabated firmness in prices.

"The sales for the past week, as given below, aggregate 2,029,600 lbs domestic and 1,524,350 lbs foreign, against 1,134,600 lbs domestic and 4,500 lbs foreign for the corresponding week of 1879; 1,294,000 lbs and 46,600 lbs for 1878; and 1,168,900 lbs and 5,000 for 1877. The total sales of domestic wool since January 1st 1880, have been 6,201,600 lbs, and of foreign 4,492,850 lbs. against 4,997,900 lbs. domestic and 393,000 lbs. foreign for the same time last year.

"The receipts of domestic wool for the past week have been 4,015 bales and of foreign 1,437 bales, against 2,305 domestic and 135 bales foreign for the corresponding week of 1879. The total receipts of domestic wool since Jan. 1st 1880, have been 14842 bales and of foreign 6,980 bales, against 7,937 bales domestic and 913 bales foreign for the same time last year.

"In Foreign—220,000 lbs. Montevideo, p. t.; 15,000 Colonial, p. t.; 9,100 English, p. t.; 10,000 do, 83c.; 12,000 do, 52½c.; 14,000 do, 57c.; 25,000 do, 56c; 21,000 Australian, 46c.; 33 000 Magdalena, 34½ to 34c.; 30,000 Montevideo, 39-40c.; 139,250 do, p. t.; 1,000,000 Montevideo, to arrive, p. t. Total, 1,524,350 pounds."

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Medical Staff)

CHLORODYNE

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was unquestedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 13th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitations and Spasms.

Extracts from Medical Opinions.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne. See Lancet, Dec. 31st, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq. late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay. 'Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed.

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports (December 1865) that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. Collis' Browne's Chlorodyne was administered, the patient recovered.

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera. 'So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, August 1st, 1860, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne, that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION. None genuine without the words 'Dr. J. Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Pildoras Holloway

Las virtudes de esta admirable medicina son especialmente eficaces para expulsar de la Sangre toda impureza. En los casos de debilidad, ella es incomparable, al paso que cura radicalmente las Indigestiones, y los desordenes generales del Hígado, del Estomago, y de los Intestinos, restableciendose, como por encanto, el vigor y la salud normal, dichas Pildoras remueven asimismo las dolencias que suelen afligir a las Mugeres al llegar estas a la edad critica.

Unguento Holloway

Este incomparable Balsamo sana los Males de Piernas y de Pecho, las Llagas Antiguas, y aun esas Ulceras cuyo orijen no conviene mencionar en un anuncio publico. Para todas las Erupciones cutaneas no hay remedio igual al Unguento Holloway, al que millares deben la salvacion tanto de sus Brazos y Piernas como de su existencia.

Antes de comprar, examinese con mucha cautela el Rotulo en el Bote o la Caja, para cerciorarse si esta la direccion de 533, Oxford Street, London, pues si no esta, entonces se trata de perpetrar un descarado engaño.

Muy importante para el Publico.

Poseido de la mayor ansiedad, y con el debido respecto al Publico, apelo muy encarecidamente a toda clase de personas, para que se dignen prestarme su apoyo, dando a conocer como falsas las muias y sumamente peligrosas falsificaciones de mis medicinas, hechas principalmente en Nueva York, de que tengan conocimiento.

Especuladores nada escrupulosos adquieren esta broza a un precio sumamente bajo, y la venden como si fuera mis genuinas pildoras y ungüento, logrando con este reprobado trafico una enorme ganancia.

Ninguno de los expresados medicamentos son genuinos, si no llevan en el rotulo de cada bote y caja la inscripcion siguiente: Holloway's Pills and Ointment, 533, Oxford Street, London, y el sello del Gobierno Britanico, con las palabras Holloway's Pills and Ointment, grabadas en el.

Las personas que tengan la bondad de informar de algun traficante que venda las enunciadas medicinas falsas, seran muy bien remuneradas, y nunca, ni en circumstancia alguna, se publicaran sus nombres.
